What is Cultural Citizenship ?

Cultural citizenship is about having the right to express one’s culture, religion or identity freely and being accepted in the society.

Thinkers	Core Ideas
Rosaldo	It is the right to be different and to belong.
Appiah	Cultures never been pure, they evolve through positive ‘contamination’.
Sen	Identity is plural and contextual.
Hall	Identity is not fixed, it’s shaped over time through experience, memory, and change.

Cultural Citizenship in Practice

Challenges of being a minority

Wants to celebrate Durga Puja, but must stay quiet to avoid disrupting others.

Living hybrid identities

Feels more at home in the UK, but still keeps parts of her Bangladeshi culture alive.

Negotiating Belonging
